Current Events

Drs. B.L. Ehle and I. Barrodale (Mathematics) attended the International Federation for Information Processing Congress in Ljubljana, Yugoslavia, from Aug. 23-28. This year's congress, which is held once every three years, was attended by approximately 3,000 delegates from 45 countries. Dr. Ehle also visited the University of Dundee, Scotland, to discuss problems in the numerical solution of differential equations at a meeting of Numerical Analysts which preceded the IFIP meeting.

Mrs. Shirley Baker, Coordinator of Women's Activities and Housing, has been elected Deputy Chairman of the Victoria Branch, Canadian Institute of International Affairs.

Dr. Paul Kiparsky of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology will speak on "The Role of Linguistics in a Theory of Poetry" on Thursday, October 21st, 4:30 p.m. in room 208-209, Commons Block, under the joint auspices of the Department of Linguistics and the Linguistics Circle.

The Department of Linguistics is pleased to announce that Dr. Thomas E. Hukari has been appointed to the faculty as a visiting Assistant Professor for the current year. Dr. Hukari, who replaces Dr. James E. Hoard, recently appointed to U.B.C., will teach General Linguistics, Morphology and Syntax, and will conduct research on Amerindian languages.

Assistant Registrar

Mr. Greg W. Durward, formerly Co-ordinator of Scheduling at Waterloo University where he graduated in 1969 with a Bachelor of Mathematics degree, has been appointed Assistant Registrar as of October 1. Mr. Durward, 25, is a native of Toronto and is married, with one child. Prior to joining the Registrar's Office at Waterloo in May, 1969, he was employed during his university career, under Waterloo's

Co-operative Programme, by Dehavilland Aircraft, Kimberly Clark Pulp and Paper, and Waterloo's Dept. of Geography where he was a consultant to professors and graduate students, largely in the application of statistical methods and computer techniques to problems in quantitative geography.

Dr. Richard Shutler, Jr. (Anthropology/Sociology) attended the "Regional Symposium on Conservation of Nature-Reefs and Lagoons", held at Noumea, New Caledonia, Aug. 4-14, sponsored by the South Pacific Commission, the IUCN and FAO. Dr. Shutler presented a paper at the Symposium titled "The Conservation of Archaeological Sites in the Pacific".

Dr. John Woods (Philosophy) has been elected to the Program and Executive Committees of the American Philosophical Association (Pacific Division). The tenure of office is three years.

Dr. J. B. MacLean, Head of The Department of Germanic Languages & Literature, reports that Miss Carol Wootton (English and German) has been awarded a Canada Council Scholarship, and is now studying towards a Ph. D. in Comparative Literature at the University of Alberta.

Dr. W. R. Gordon (Mathematics) has recently been elected to the Council of the Canadian Mathematical Congress.

Professors Charles Galloway and Norma Mickelson (Education) have received a grant of $20,700. from the British Columbia Educational Research Institute. The research and development project on which they are working is being carried out at McKenzie Avenue School and has been funded for a total of $54,400. in the three years of its operation.

Publications

Dr. P. M. H. Edwards (French) has recently published:

The Rumanian Verb System (a linguistic analysis) by A.G. Juilland (Stanford University) and P.M.H. Edwards (University of Victoria)

The University of Victoria Theatre Department will present two one-act plays for six performances in October. Both productions will be directed by theatre students. Jean-Paul Sartre's NO EXIT will be directed by graduate student Julian Forrester and Lawrence Osgood's PIGEONS will be directed by Randy Cheveldave. The plays will be performed in the University of Victoria Phoenix Theatre on October 7, 8, 9, 14, 15 and 16.

Fencing

The University Fencing Club will be meeting regularly throughout the year on Mondays and Wednesdays at 8:00 p.m., Room 2, Hut "P", beginning on Monday Sept 20. Lessons in foil and sabre will be given for beginners on Wednesdays. Monday sessions are designed primarily for those who are prepared to defend themselves! All are welcome. For further information, call Mr. Tumber, local 631.

Faculty and Staff Family Nights

Family nights in the gymnasium for members of the faculty and staff, their wives, and children will continue again this year. We hope many members of the faculty and staff will take advantage of the facilities by coming along for a couple of hours of unorganized recreational fun with their offsprings. An attendant will be available to give you any equipment you need. Offsprings must be accompanied by an adult member of the family.

CANADIAN CROSSROADS INTERNATIONAL is a private voluntary organization engaged in promoting international understanding. Those selected to participate in the program will have an opportunity to live and work abroad for a period of 3 - 6 months.

The Victoria Crossroads Committee will hold an information meeting for anyone interested in becoming a Canadian Crossroads volunteer at 7:30 p.m., October 18th, in 208/209 Commons Block. There will be presentations by former Victoria Crossroaders about their experiences, and Miss Elizabeth Paterson, national director of selection for Canadian Crossroads International, will explain the program and answer questions. Application forms will be available at the meeting.

Participants are expected to contribute a portion of the total cost, however, Crossroads is responsible for travel to and from the point of departure in Canada plus lodging, meals, and a limited amount of travel within the host country. If you are interested in assisting with the work in underprivileged countries, be sure and attend the local meeting and learn more about the program.

In cooperation with ten Departments from all three Faculties, the Division of Continuing Education will offer 31 special evening courses and programs for adults this fall. Expected enrolment is 400. Included in the Division's program are courses for engineers, nurses, teachers, social workers and bankers as well as a wide variety of offerings for local residents.

Highlights include a new French Language Diploma Program for adults, a course on genetics for nurses, a downtown course on Japan for businessmen, a lecture series on Bertolt Brecht, and a special course on Library Use. Instructors include twenty-one full-time members of faculty as well as invited guest lecturers.

The Chairman of the Residential Canvass for the 1971 United Appeal is our own Shirley Baker, Manager of Student Housing. One of her Division Chairman, Mrs. Sonia Croucher, Secretary to the Vice-President for Administration, has requested the "Secretary's Corner" to remind all of her colleagues that there is a need for volunteer workers for the residential canvass to take place during the day of Saturday, October 16.

If you are willing to help in this worthwhile cause, just call Sonia at local 207, and give her your name and address. The few hours you spend on this canvass could be very rewarding to you as well as being very helpful to the people assisted by the agencies supported by the United Appeal.

Miss Karen Mar has joined the staff of the University as the secretary in Visual Arts - a very warm welcome to the Campus, Karen.

Mrs. Mae Peters can now be found in Office Services, L Building, local 779, where she is secretary to the Committee on Faculty Research Leave and Travel.

The office of the Director of General University Services has moved to the Clearihue Building, Rooms 039 and 041. This move involves Mr. T.J. Sawchuk, Director, and Mrs. Gloria McCleave, Secretary.

HOMEcoming WEEK - October 16th. Watch for details in next Newsletter!
